

Cyril Chapter2 verse 3.2 And when he heard the cries of the brides “why doth thee send raineth on my specialeth day?” God grouped together the angels and split them into two groups. One group would cure the aforesaid brides of that nasty speech impediment and the other group would live on earth and help arrange weddings in exotic locations.

So many people are now realising a dream of getting married abroad. It seems the most complex part of the wedding planning for the couple can be simply choosing the location. Florida Weddings spoke to us at UK Wedding Belles about some of the locations they arrange weddings.

You may choose to have your wedding on a gorgeous stretch of beach, overlooking spectacular waters. Lose your senses among tropical plants, exotic wildlife, and stunning scenery. Whether you are looking for a chapel, a beach, a secluded gazebo or any site that is man made or natural, Florida has some of the most exciting in the world.

Florida is a land where the beaches stretch beyond your wildest imagination. Where the exotic becomes the ordinary and with more than eighteen hundred miles of glistening shoreline, you can always find your very own piece of paradise on one of Florida's inviting beaches. Walk the soft beaches in the quiet of sunrise to your special moment in time. Or enjoy a spectacular sunset , the sun melting into the ocean in the grand crescendo of the day passing.

Just some of the many locations where you can get married:

Sanibel Island ‘snow white sand beach’
Overlooking the spectacular waters of the Gulf of Mexico. local ambiance makes this a stunning place for your wedding. A very small island, with so much to offer.

Captiva Island ‘Crystal clear turquoise waters’
Surrounded by soothing tropical sounds sunsets beyond description and plenty of history. Pirates once roamed this wonderful location in days gone by. Breathtaking sunsets and unlimited amenities will ensure that your stay will be as relaxing as anywhere.

Ft. Myers Beach ‘Gorgeous sunsets’
A fun filled location with lots to do. Great for water sports. Fort Myers has plenty to offer, some wonderful restaurants and also some very good entertainment. Resort hotels overlooking the Gulf waters and some of Florida’s ten thousand Islands. Ft. Myers has a number of quieter locations for your ceremony as does nearby Naples.

Marco Island ‘Sparkling Gulf waters’
This is the largest of Florida's ten thousand islands. Sparkling Gulf waters, pristine white beaches, dolphins are frequently observed, serene setting and casual attitude.

The Key's of Sarasota ‘outstanding location’
The beautiful waters of the Gulf coast around the white sands of Longboat, Lido and Siesta beaches are indescribable. An extremely relaxed and laid back atmosphere awaits you that has plenty to offer to cater to every need and taste.

Destin/Ft. Walton Beach ‘the emerald coast’
Located in the north of Florida, on the gulf coast is this wonderful location. Beautiful sugar white beaches. A popular area for weddings during the summer months, but can be a touch cool at other times of the year.

Anna Maria Island ‘old Florida’
This small island, surprisingly holds 3 cities. Step back in time on Anna Maria island to old Florida, as the locals have maintained an atmosphere of times gone by. Wonderful for beach front restaurants that will cater for your reception or a romantic meal for the two of you.

Clearwater/St. Petersburg/Tampa ‘35 miles of shoreline’
Stroll out of your hotel and have the ceremony on the beach in front of you, fantastic white beaches and clear waters make this a lovely part of Florida. Plenty of entertainment to fill all your needs.

Cape Canaveral/ Cocoa Beach/Orlando ‘a little adventure’
The beaches nearest to Orlando's main theme parks, ideal if you are combining your wedding with a little adventure or wish to board a theme cruise. Some of the delightful parks and lakes provide ideal locations for your ceremony.

Miami beach/Ft.Lauderdale ‘cruise after the ceremony’
This is popular destination for couples who wish to board a cruise after the ceremony. These areas have some of the most elegant beaches available within Florida .The south of Florida is possibly one of the warmest during the winter months.

You can turn the dream into reality by arranging a wedding in Florida that can be as individual as the location you are choosing to marry. Florida Weddings are able to provide you with your wedding day requirements from basic romantic ceremonies through to lavish weddings at sea, giving you as much freedom as possible, so that you can create a dream day that is special to you.
